

Photo right: TRADOC Organization Day participants begin the 3K fun run/walk during the early morning hours of June 30 near Continental Park. The overall winners of the event were David McCoy (pictured far right, men's division), Samantha Bradley (pictured second from left, women's division), Laura Mayer (stroller division) and Chris Bradley (children's division). Second place finalists were Bill Tenant (men), Charlotte Johnson (women), Angela Mounce (stroller), and Megan Edilen (children). Photo below: Sheila Harris shows off her catch during the fishing competition. The names of the winners of that event were not available at press time.

Photo by Patricia Radcliffe

Photo by Patrick Buffett

TRADOC Organization Day Scrapbook

Photo by James Wagner

Photo above: Lou and Becky Smithson compete in the TRADOC Organization Day canoe race on Mill Creek. Competitors faced choppy waters and strong wind during the event. The top finishers in the men's division were Keith Edwards and Ben Garner. Bob Mooney and Bob Jennings took second. In the women's division, Hannah Smith and Sarah Echelberger took first, and Remi and Becca Mackey took second. For the mixed division, Carolyn Gilroy and Mike Barber placed first, followed by Peggy Good and Tom Lungrund. Photo right: Gary Lewis blasts a ball into play during the doubles tennis competition on the courts across the street from the Bay Breeze Community Center. The overall winners were Steve McCall and Bill Saunders, and the team of Carolyn Reynolds and Lewis took home the second-place trophy. Photo far right: Joel Portuese and his daughter Chelsea compete in the three-legged race. The duo finished second overall. First place went to the team of Tina and Tiara Myers.

Photo by James Wagner

Photo by Patrick Buffett

Photo by Patrick Buffett

Fort Monroe family member Mike Kimidy leaps for the kill shot during the TRADOC Organization Day volleyball competition. Eight teams competed in the single-elimination event. The overall winner was Cadet Command. DCSPIL placed second.

Photo by Patrick Buffett

Photo left: Pat Nugent competes in the TRADOC Organization Day closest-to-the-pin golf competition. Players had three shots to hit a green that was approximately 500 yards away. The overall winner was Ben Wiegler. Nugent placed second. Norma Tovar led the women's group followed by Carole Surles. Logan Brown was the only children's division winner. Photo below: Bill Moissant tosses iron toward the pin during the horseshoe competition. Moissant and teammate Tunce Andleton placed second in the event. First place went to Hamp and Frank Anderson.

Photo by James Wagner

Photos by Patrick Buffett

Photo above: Retired Sgt. Maj. Jamie Sisler tags retired Col. Al Resnik as he slides into home plate during the TRADOC Organization Day Stars vs. Stripes softball game at DeRussy Field. The game came down to a seventh inning nail-biter in which the score was tied 7-7. Aggressive bat work by the NCOs led to four more runs at the top of the inning. The heavy hitters included Sgt. Maj. Mangenious Jackson, pictured left. The officers failed to answer the attack and the game ended 11-7, Stripes. The win takes the ongoing series, which began during the 2004 organization day observance, to 6-4 in favor of the officers. The teams compete throughout the year.

Other Org Day Winners ...

Congratulations to ARCIC for their first-place finish in the June 30 Softball tournament. USAAC placed second in that event. Chris and Carlos Teasley swept the 2-on-2 basketball competition. Tom Scott and Elliott Pleasant finished second in that event.